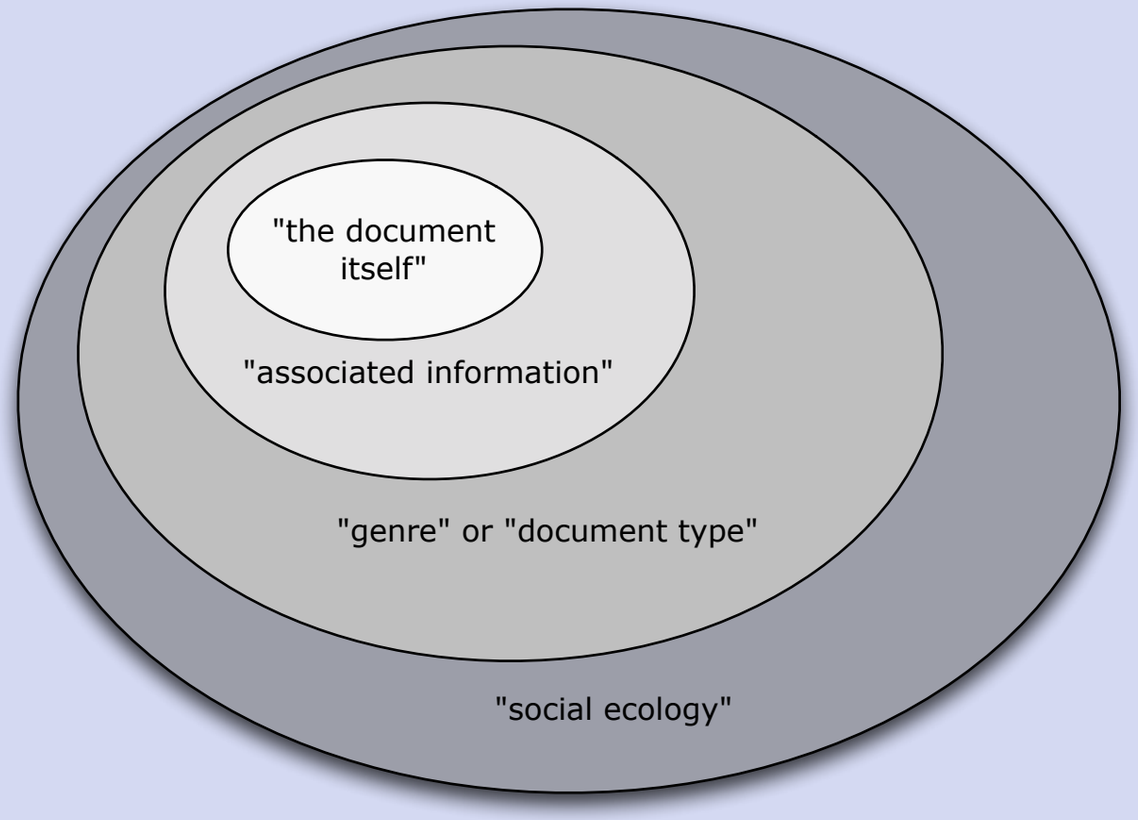
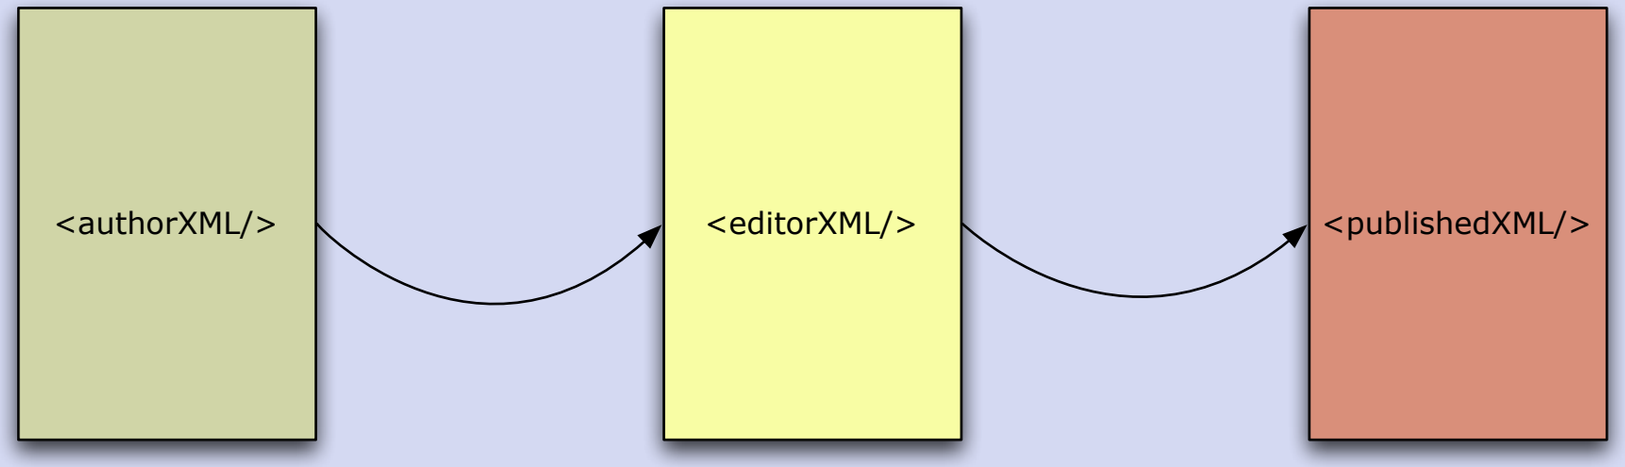
Modeling Collaboration

Julia Flanders
Brown University



"the document itself"
"associated information"
"genre" or "document type"
"social ecology"



Imposition of basic authoring requirements

One body <para> required

Sections must have <head>

Authorial metadata fields required

Detection of missing data
Imposition of consistency across journal
Assimilation to journal info space

All <ref> must point to a <bibl>

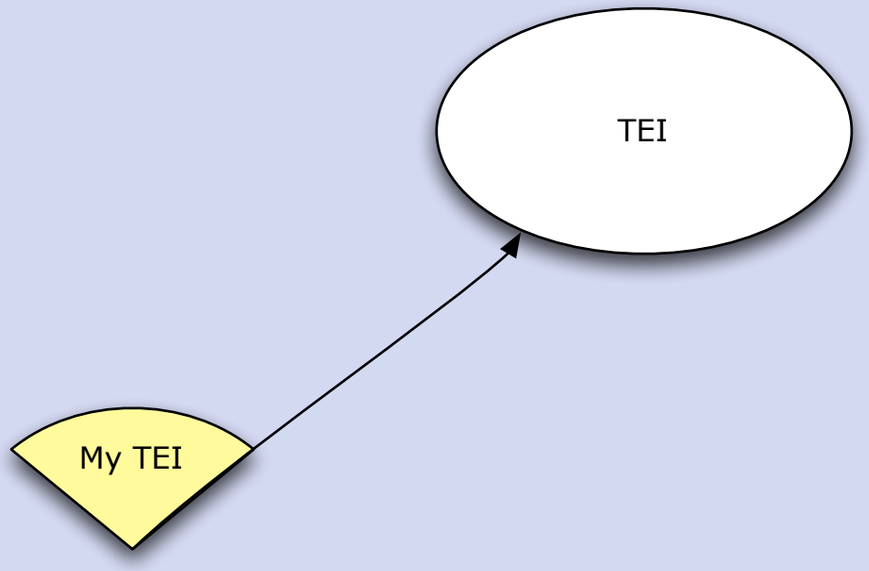
Section-level keywording required, must use controlled vocabulary

If <name> used, must point to journal personography

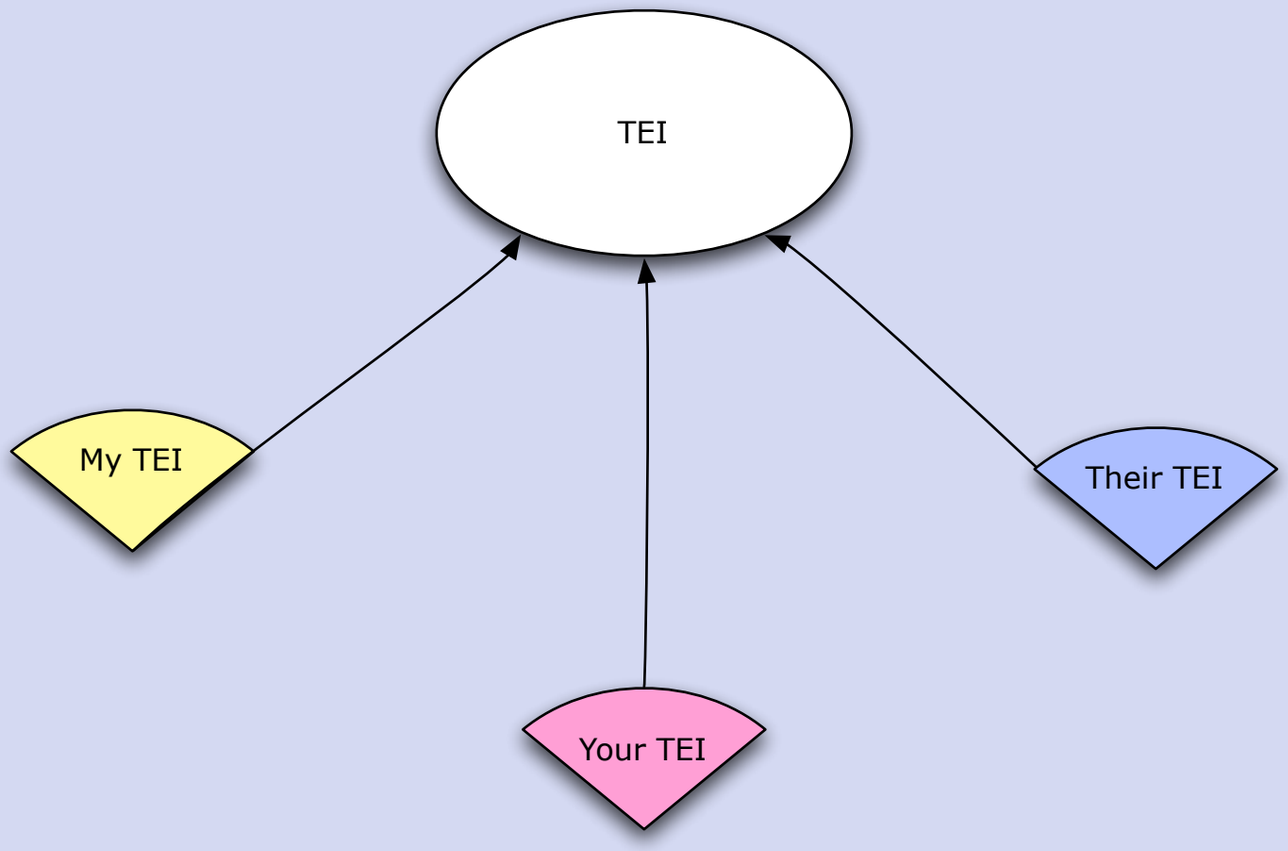
If term used, must point to journal glossary

Registering published status and associated metadata

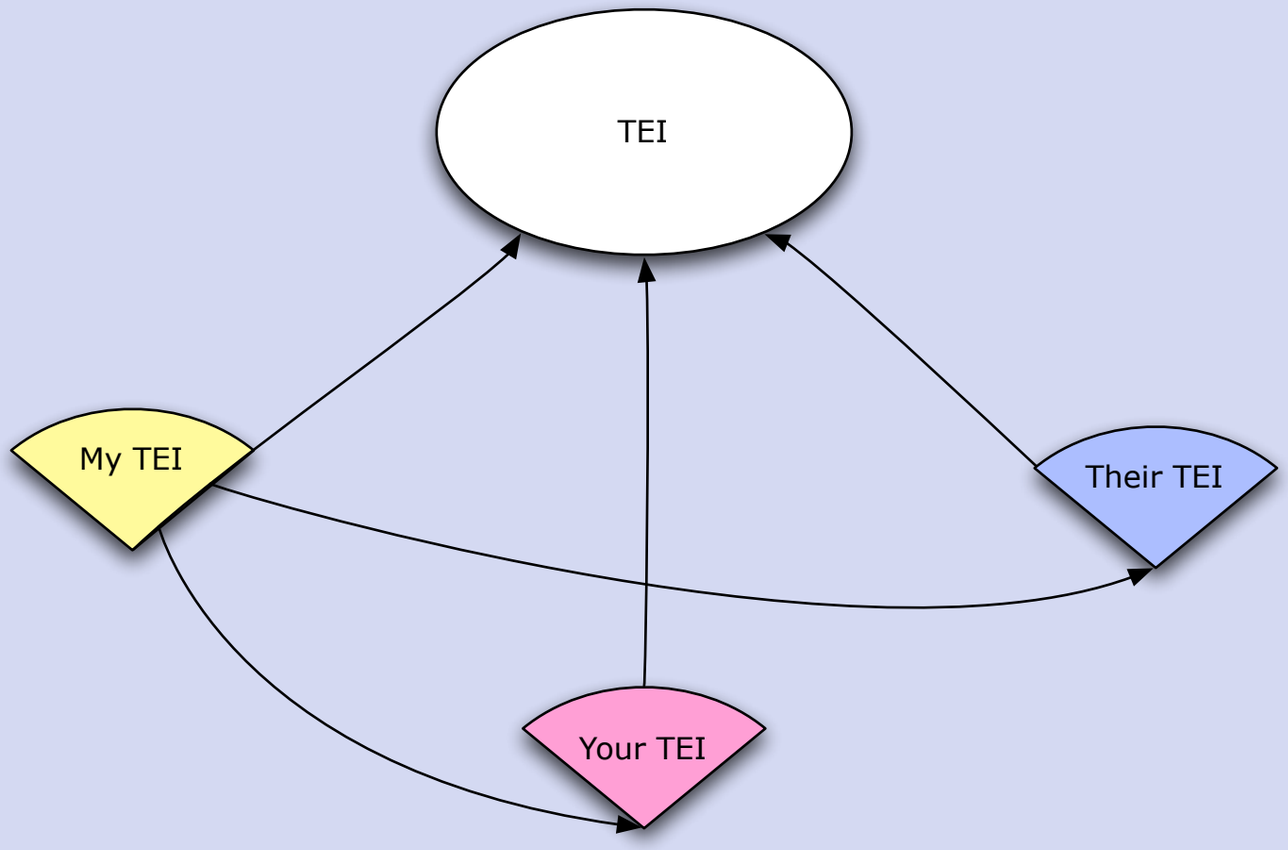
Publication metadata fields required



TEI
My TEI



TEI
My TEI
Their TEI
Your TEI



TEI
My TEI
Their TEI
Your TEI

TEI transcription editing publication work flow prototype improved mature project maturation

Cross-sectional view:

- debate at a given moment
- uncertainty, hypothesis, specualtion
- choices, alternatives
- intentions (measured against actions)

Sequential view:

- work process
- developmental process
- history of debate
- history of actions